Computer Help
By Elise Hershey
Tip #349 Printer errors are a common source of frustration for computer users. Often, printer errors occur when there are too many print jobs in queue. If your printer will not print a document or is printing something other than the document you chose, turn it off. While the printer is turned off, access the operating system main menu on your computer or laptop. Click on the folder titled Printers and delete any documents in the print queue. Once you have cancelled all pending print jobs, turn your printer back on and try to print the desired document. If this does not work, you may want to reinstall the software that originally came with your printer.

Question 3. What is the main purpose of the article?

- (A) To compare prices on printers
- (B) To announce a product's release
- (C) To instruct on printing documents
- (D) To give advice on fixing a problem

Question 4. What is mentioned about software?

- (A) It is included in the price.
- (B) It may need to be reinstalled.
- (C) It should be exchanged for another program.
- (D) It can be used on multiple operating systems.

Question 5 to 7 refer to the following message

From: Reiko Kenji

To: Brent Wood, Holly Marquez, Tamia Mumba, Arel Mance

Subject: Sick days

Attention all department managers:

Effective January 3, all sick leave forms must be accompanied by a physician's note. As always, forms must be submitted to the general affairs office and approved by Mr. Ferguson before any absences are designated as paid sick leave.

Employees are entitled to a maximum of 15 paid absences per calendar year. This includes ten days for medical and five days for personal leave.

Any absences that are not accompanied by medical documentation will be considered a paid personal day off unless the employee's limit of five paid personal absences has been exceeded. In this case, the absence will be unpaid and subject to review by the human resources staff during employee evaluations.

Please discuss this with the members of your department at your next departmental meeting. Call me at extension 6767 if you have any questions regarding this change in policy.

Reiko

Question 5. When will the new policy begin?

- (A) December 11
- (B) December 15
- (C) January 3

Question 6. What are employees required to do?

- (A) Get a health examination
- (B) Get a note from their doctor
- (C) Submit their medical records
- (D) Use the company health insurance plan.

Question 7. Where should documents be submitted?

- (A) To Mr. Wood's office
- (B) To Ms. Kenji's office
- (C) To the general affairs office
- (D) To the human resources department

Question 8. What can be inferred about unpaid absences?

- (A) Employees are entitled to five per year.
- (B) They are a new part of the absence policy.
- (C) Human resources employees take them often.
- (D) They are considered during employee evaluations.

Net Tech Agreement

Net Tech guarantees that all of its machines conform to Net Tech specifications and are free from manufacturing defects. During the warranty period, Net Tech agrees to repair or exchange any Net Tech machine that does not meet specifications or contains defects of any kind. The warranty period begins on the date of the machine's purchase and extends for one year. The machine's date of purchase can be found on the original sales receipt.

If, during the warranty period, any part of the machine is removed for a Net Tech conversion or upgrade, the replacement part will fall under the same warranty agreement as the removed part. Unless otherwise specified, the warranty period and service level of the added part will be the same as that of the Net Tech machine on which it has been installed.

This warranty agreement applies only in the country or region where the Net Tech machine was purchased.

- (D) They must be returned within seven days for a full refund.

Question 24 to 28 refer to the following advertisement

Dear Ms. Kowalski,

I would like to introduce our newest math workbook series to you. As an elementary educator who uses books from Eduvantage Publishing, I think you will find this workbook series beneficial. Math Basics is a workbook series aimed at elementary school students in second, third, and fourth grade. The goal of the series is to reinforce the basic math concepts students will learn from regular classroom lessons. The series contains three workbooks at three different levels, all of which can be used as a supplement to regular classroom teaching and will strengthen the math skills and strategies students already possess.

Each 250-page workbook in the series is divided into 10 topical chapters and provides brief, easy to-follow instructions for completing math problems. Each workbook also includes a wealth of practice exercises that students can use to sharpen their understanding of the featured concept. Additionally, each workbook comes with a teacher's guide and a complete answer key.

Workbook features include:

- * Drills and practice exercises in basic math concepts
- * Fun activities to reinforce key concepts
- * A glossary of important math terms
- * Colorful illustrations and diagrams to help demonstrate concepts

Concepts taught throughout the series include:

- * Addition and subtraction;
- * Time and money;
- * Measurement;
- * Graphing and geometry;
- * Place values, fractions, and decimals; and
- * Multiplication and division.

Math Basics workbooks are currently priced at $7.99 each, with a significant discount for bulk orders. For more details on the workbook series or to place an order, please contact me at 5547729.
